

What Are My Choices?

IN THIS ISSUE: NEEDLES AND RELATED DEVICES

Editorial Staff

You've decided to pursue a career in acupuncture and Oriental medicine. You've graduated from school, passed all of your exams, and are now a licensed practitioner. What do you do next? Where can you go to find information on the latest products, continuing education programs, and other goods and services that will help your practice grow?

"What Are My Choices?" is here to answer all of those questions - and more. What Are My Choices? is an occasional column that gives you the information you need straight from the experts: the companies themselves. This issue's column focuses on needles and related devices - items that are essential to having a successful acupuncture and Oriental medicine practice.
